1. An eight year plan has just been mapped out by the authorities of the Mongolian People's Republic to incorporate Inner Mongolia in their territory. In order to avoid as much open conflict as possible, Mongolians between the ages of fifteen and forty-five are being collected and sent to the territory of the Mongolian People's Republic. To date more than 5,000 youths have transported there by force. These youths will later return to Inner Mongolia to spread propaganda and to strengthen the attempt, through political means, to incorporate Inner Mongolia in the Mongolian People's Republic.
2. People for this work are to be secured as follows:
 - a. The Inner Mongolian Autonomous Movement Association will round up recruits.
 - b. Chiefs of leagues and banners will be requested to send individuals.
 - c. Mongolian students, officers, merchants, farmers, etc., in Nationalist-held areas are to be persuaded to desert to the Mongolian People's Republic.
 - d. Inner Mongolians out of work will be conscripted by Inner Mongolian authorities sympathetic to the Mongolian People's Republic.
 - e. Inner Mongolians will be encouraged to volunteer.
